Press Note. 93

The Child Marriage Restraint Act, 1929, (Act XIX of 1929) is one of the Central Acts which has been extended to Mysore by the Part B States (Laws) Act, 1951, with effect from 1st April 1951. The Act penalises the solemnisation of the marriage of a child, that is, of a male who is under eighteen years of age or of a female who is under fifteen years of age. A male adult above 18 years of age and below 21 years who contracts a child marriage is punishable with fifteen days simple imprisonment and one thousand rupees fine.

Simple imprisonment for three months and also fine are the punishment for—

(1) a male above 21 years of age who contracts a child marriage;
(2) persons who perform, conduct or direct a child marriage, and
(3) parents or guardians of a minor who contracts a child marriage.
